

County Volunteering Network Meeting

Recognising and Valuing Volunteers

The session will take a look at how and why organisations should recognise, celebrate and appreciate the commitment of their volunteers. If volunteers feel appreciated, they are more likely to stay with an organisation and so this session will focus on the importance of acknowledging the contribution volunteers make to the organisation and the clients and how best to do this

There will also be the opportunity to be updated on and review the Compact Code for Volunteering.

Come and join us at this bi-annual meeting - share ideas and best practice, and network with others across Cumbria who manage volunteers.
