Up to £2000 is available to help more people experience the countryside and connect with nature. We are particularly interested in supporting groups who may have faced barriers to visiting the countryside in the past.

Who can apply?

- Community groups looking to organise countryside visits
- Farmers who want to host visits for groups or new audiences

Funding may be used for visits, activities or transport.

For example:

- Visits such as walks and picnics
- Well-being walks
- Creative workshops (art, crafts, music, storytelling, photography, nature etc)
- Camping trips on farms

You can also access support from the North Pennines National Landscape team to help run your events.

Contact Kerryanne Higgins,
On-Farm Engagement Officer to talk through your ideas and to apply.
